President's Corner

by JoAnne Eaton-Morriss, President

The year started with two special fundraisers: wine tasting at Peter's Wine Shop in Port Orange, and food, fun and wine at Michele Jordan's on the Halifax River with her brother, a chef from Tampa, preparing the food.

Our opening meeting was lively musical entertainment from the talented "Dick and Doc" duo.

The MOAS Guild members are asked to please get one sponsor or patron for the 48th Halifax Art Festival on November 6th-7th. What a special event this is with fine art, entertainment, food and activities for children and pets. It's a wonderful family weekend. Sign up to volunteer now!

October is a busy month. Plan to attend and bring a friend to the luncheon fashion show, "All Dressed Up for the Holidays", on October 19th at the Halifax River Yacht Club. Learn some dance steps with Carol Platig and Jerry Lawrence at a dancing workshop on October 26th. Dress up for Halloween and a dinner cruise on the Starlite Princess on October 30th. There's entertainment galore so make your reservations now!

The Festival of Trees will soon be here with the "Champagne Preview Gala" opening on November 18th. Volunteer to be an elf!

The MOAS Guild has fun raising money for the Museum. Join the bandwagon and support and attend the activities that you enjoy. See you there!

Appointment of Committee Chairs

The Committee Chair is the most important member on the committee. The Chair is responsible for calling the committee meetings, overseeing all the work and completing the work. Most Committee Chairs are appointed by either the President or an Executive Board.

When selecting a Committee Chair: the person who is appointed should be enthusiastic about the committee work, have the time to devote to the committee, know how to do the work, be able to work with others and inspire them to do the work. . . and always remember that committee work is teamwork, not a one-man band.

A Special Call to Members New and Old

This year we will be adding hosts and hostesses to the Festival of Trees to welcome and guide the guests with a program, a smile, and a glass of champagne. Volunteers are needed to help for an hour or so between 5:30–8:30 PM. I will try to accommodate the hour of your choice. Sign up with a friend, spouse, or by yourself. Please contact me, Joan Horneff, at 386.263.2195, or ahorneff@cfl.rr.com, if you can help.

Festival of Trees Decorating Workshop

There will be a hands-on workshop. . . remember to bring your supplies and materials. . . full of ideas for decorating the Signature Trees, Wreaths and Swags on October 26, from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM in the library at the Museum. And bring your lunch! It will be interesting and lots of fun. If you didn’t sign up at the September Meeting, it’s not too late. Just give me a call or send me an email:

Marilyn Maloney, 386.677.7256;
marilyndmaloney@yahoo.com

Ornaments

Please bring new or gently-used ornaments to the October Luncheon, or the November General Meeting, to be sold from the 2nd Annual Guild Gift Tree that will again be displayed in the lobby.

GREAT NEWS!

NEW GUILD PROJECT!

Volunteers Now Being Accepted

Guild members will now have the opportunity to actively support by becoming volunteers at the Charles and Linda Williams Children’s Museum.

Don’t know anything about all those wonderful children’s exhibits? No problem—training will be provided by the Museum staff. This service is an enjoyable and unique way to support the Guild. Positions are available during ALL Museum hours, with a special need for Tuesdays and weekends. Sign up by contacting Marcia Goldstein at 386.547.3300 (cell), 386.308.6040 (home), or marcia@groups-travel.com.

MINUTES OF THE REGULAR MEETING OF THE MUSEUM GUILD, September 21st, 2010

The Regular meeting of the Guild of the Museum of the Arts and Sciences was held on September 21, 2010 in Root Hall. The meeting was called to order by President Joanne Eaton-Morris at 10:30, the secretary being present. The president introduced Second Vice-President Eileen McDermott, who in turn introduced our program for the day.

We were entertained by the "Dick and Doc Duo", Violinist Marshall Frank, a retired homicide detective and Pianist Dr. Jay Barnhart, a retired forensic pathologist. The duo provided the membership with a fun-loving forum of musical entertainment.

The business meeting was resumed at 11:15. In the absence of Else Wiedeman, Ruth Bon-Fleur led the group in a sing-a-log thought for the day, "Enjoy Yourself, It's later Than You Think".

The Minutes of the April meeting were approved as published in the "Musings".

Joan Chase distributed the projected budget for 2010-2011. She reviewed the budget. Ruth Bon-Fleur motioned we accept the budget. The motion was seconded, voted on, and accepted.

President, Joanne Eaton-Morris announced that the Guild made their annual contribution to the Museum of $5000.

New members and guests were introduced. New Board members were introduced, Judy Krombholz, Hospitality Committee Chair, Sandy Buckley, Membership Chair, and Joan Horneff, Recording Secretary. The President thanked Cathy Fromm for her work as Recording Secretary.

Judy Krombholz thanked the Hospitality Committee for their refreshments and willingness to help.

Michele Jordan reminded everyone of the Kick off Party on the Intracoastal, this Saturday night.

Doreen Armstrong, Art Festival Chair gave a progress report. She says "We're on our Way". 161 spaces are occupied and the tee shirts are ready and on sale for $12. The committee is still in need of volunteers for set up and hostesses, books, and a possible wine donation. Cathy Fromm reminded the group of the Student Art Program. The tee shirt design was the result of a student contest. Ruth Bon-Fleur made an impassioned plea for Patrons. The Patrons receive credit for shopping as well as a tent providing refreshments during the Festival.

Cathy Bauerle, Festival of Trees Chair reported on the progress of her committee. There will be a hands-on workshop Oct 26 for trees, wreaths, and garland. Please bring an ornament to our next meeting for our Guild tree. There are 12 trees so far but many more are needed. There will be a joint "Silver Bell Tea" with the Symphony Guild. Volunteers are still needed for Hostesses for the evening.

Joan Horneff spoke about a new Guild project. Volunteers are needed to provide assistance in the Children's Museum. Training will be provided.

Eleanor Tarach reminded the membership of the importance of keeping track of and reporting hours to her each month.

Eileen McDermott spoke on next month's meeting. October 19, a luncheon, "All Dressed Up For the Holidays" will be held at the Halifax River Yacht Club. Marilyn Maloney will be speaking on holiday décor and Fashions for the holidays will be presented by Bonnies Boutique. The cost is $30 and the deadline for reservations is October 10.

Eileen also reminded the Committee Chairs to be sure to let her know if you have any special set up needs for meetings.

As there was no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 11:50.

Respectfully submitted,
Joan Horneff, Recording Secretary

Please support and patronize our sponsors
